SCHEDULE

1st Day - Arusha - Orkeju Camp

After breakfast, you will be collected by our Team and driven the scenic 3 hours into our Orkeju Camp in time to unpack and settle in before a delicious lunch. After lunch, there will be time for a siesta before you all meet in the mess tent for tea and cake followed by a game drive to a beautiful sundowner spot for cocktails and appetizers. You will all then head back to camp in time to shower and have dinner.

2nd - 5th Day - Orkeju Camp / *Orkeju Fly Camp

Each morning starts in the mess tent with coffee, tea, and light snacks before setting out to a designated waterhole. Here, you'll wait for sandgrouse, doves, and possibly guinea fowl as they come in as the sun starts to rise.

After a couple of hours, you'll break for a delicious bush breakfast, followed by the option of a walk-up hunt for Francolin and Spur Fowl.

Depending on the location, you may either return to camp for lunch and a siesta or enjoy a picnic lunch in the field beneath a shady tree.

As the day cools in the late afternoon, you can try your luck with driven guinea fowl, followed by sundowners in the bush before heading back to camp for showers, dinner, and drinks around the campfire.

 1 night at Orkeju Fly Camp - Imagine rounding the corner after a long, hot, and dusty day on the road to discover a perfectly idyllic scene. A crackling campfire casts a warm glow, while smiling waiters greet you with an ice-cold drink and a refreshing face towel. A steaming hot shower awaits, ready to wash away the day's dust, while a beautifully set table beneath the stars invites you to indulge in a delicious, fireside dinner.

Later, you gather around the flames, drink in hand, sharing stories of the day's adventures. And when the night winds down, you slip into your freshly laundered bed, gazing up at a sky ablaze with stars.

It really doesn't get much better than this—African fly camping at its finest.

BIRDSHOOTING IN TANZANIA

Luxury Hemingway Style Safari Adventure

Tanzania offers one of Africa's most authentic and exhilarating bird shooting experiences. The season runs from 1 July to 31 December, with exclusive access to the private Lake Natron South concession in Masailand, Northern Tanzania.

This vast, untouched wilderness delivers exceptional numbers and diversity of game birds. A Tanzanian license allows up to 50 birds per gun per day, across species including duck, goose, teal, francolin, sandgrouse, quail, dove, and guinea fowl. Shooting here is defined by its purity — no artificial pressure, just natural movement in a truly wild environment.

Mornings begin at remote waterholes, where fast-flying sandgrouse and doves test reflexes as the sun rises. Late mornings offer walk-up hunting for francolin and spur fowl, while afternoons may include driven guinea fowl or further opportunistic shooting.

For those seeking deeper immersion, fly camping under the African sky opens access to untouched areas of the concession.

With its unique combination of variety, volume, and wilderness, Tanzania stands as one of the continent's most rewarding wingshooting destinations.

THE TENTED CAMP

Sleeping under the stars

Orkeju is an intimate, luxury tented camp set along a shaded sand river in the heart of Northern Tanzania's Masailand. With Kitumbeine Mountain behind and views stretching toward Oldonyo Lengai, the setting is both dramatic and deeply tranquil.

The camp features just six elegant safari tents, each with en-suite bathrooms, hot and cold running water, king or twin beds, and private verandas overlooking the bush. Designed for comfort without compromising authenticity, it offers a refined yet understated safari experience.

At the center lies the mess tent — a relaxed gathering place for excellent cuisine, fine drinks, and conversation. Evenings are often spent dining under the stars, surrounded by the sounds of the African wilderness.

Set within a 500,000-acre private concession, the camp provides exclusive access to a remarkably diverse landscape and wildlife, including species rarely seen in national parks.

Operated on an exclusive-use basis, Orkeju Camp is ideal for private groups and families seeking complete privacy, exceptional sport, and a true connection to one of Africa's last great wild places.
