BIRDSHOOTING IN SENEGAL

Senegal is one of Africa's premier bird-hunting destinations due to its rich biodiversity and geographical location on the East Atlantic Flyway, a major migratory route.

The hunting area is unparalleled in Senegal. The perfectly managed area offers beautiful densities of francolin, pigeon and doves. In the evening we have the chance for memorable sandgrouse passes. In addition, we have plenty of water, rice paddies and reservoirs in the area, allowing you to hunt all kinds of waterfowl as well as snipe.

The area consists of 15,000 hectares of water, 20,000 hectares of rice fields and 200,000 hectares of scrubland.

During the 6 days hunt no two days are the same. The game and hunting methods change daily, allowing you to discover a wide variety of hunting and game. The hunt is a mixture of walking and driven hunts and morning and evening waterfowl hunts.

In our area you can hunt the following species:

Sometimes Guineafowl- Francolin - Blue spotted Dove - Green Pigeon - Laughing Dove - Morning Dove - Tambourine Dove - Rock Pigeon - Sandgrouse and a wide variety of waterfowl. (White-faced Whistling Duck - Spurwing Geese Knob Billed Duck - African Pygmy Geese - Kormoran, Snipes, etc.).

ACCOMMODATION

Located 130km south-west of Tambacounda, the camp is built on a promontory at the foot of the dam, offering exceptional views. Comfortable camp, the cabins are air-conditioned, ventilated and equipped with sanitary facilities and showers with hot water.

They offer very good food at each campsite, grill and barbecue in the open air, a bread oven for daily cooking, high quality catering, alternating meals composed of fish, meat, as well as Senegalese specialities and game.

The main building houses a dining room, a lounge terrace and the bar as well as a 9 x 4 swimming pool which is attached to it.

We hunt every day from sunrise to sunset, with departure times depending on the hunt and distance from the hunting area. Return to camp for lunch and rest before the afternoon hunt.

The swimming pool will allow you to rest during 2 hunts.
